

News from Around the State

DECA WEEK

For DECA week, North Gwinnett DECA had two cotton candy machines running at full speed all day Friday. Any student in the school could come to the marketing hall (decorated for DECA Week!) and enjoy FREE cotton candy and learn more about DECA. The line was never shorter than 25 students waiting for a sweet treat!

On Wednesday during DECA Week, Sequoyah High School held a "Dress for Success" day where students dressed for a corporate day at the office or for a job interview, no business casual allowed!

Mundy Mill's DECA Chapter held a miniature carnival during lunch where students could participate in carnival games and win prizes.

At North Forsyth, Tuesday was the most exciting day for their DECA Chapter, it was DECA Serve Day. On this day the members and the school participated in the second annual Letters to the Military Drive. They collected 1,225 letters that will be shipped to the soldier's just in time for Thanksgiving.

Over 100 care package items were collected to be sent to people in the military.

The Lanier Middle School DECA Chapter held a Laser Tag competition for current DECA members. An information booth was set up during lunch where drawings were held for DECA gear, donuts and Laser Tag tickets.

Make sure that your local chapter is highlighted in future newsletters by submitting your chapter news to decavpcommunication@yahoo.com.

